Debbie Duncan may be considered the upper Midwest's "best-kept-musical secret", but she has become a local legend and a great artist in her home of Minneapolis. Her personality, vitality, and versatility all contribute to that fact. She is a terrific entertainer, and this is certainly part of her appeal. Please come on down and welcome her to the Prospect Park and the Luxton Park Neighborhood.

St. Paul Postal Band

Tuesday, July 19th, 2011

The St. Paul Postal Band has been entertaining the Twin Cities for 60 + years with a wide range of classic band music from marches, polkas, to jazz and show-tunes. An all volunteer band of between 25-30 members, the band is comprised of current and retired postal workers, their friends, family, and others from the community. The band keeps a rigorous schedule of concerts in St. Paul and the surrounding areas and regularly performs at the Twin Cities marathon. Come dance, sing, clap your hands, and share in the love of music with the St. Paul Postal Band.

Summer concerts are presented by the Prospect Park Community Events Committee and are sponsored in part by the Pratt Council, PPERRIA, Luxton Park, and Schneider Drug.
Your voluntary donations will help these concerts continue.
